

Contact: Bill Crabtree
Telephone: (919) 554-6196
Email: bcrabtree@wakeforestnc.gov

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EMERGENCY PERSONNEL LOCATE MISSING MAN

WAKE FOREST, NC – May 31, 2006 – The search for a missing elderly man ended today at approximately 10:15 a.m. when North Carolina Highway Patrol aircraft spotted the body of 67-year-old Miklos Ankhely in a wooded area near Deacon's Ridge Subdivision.

Ankhely, who walked away from the Wake Forest Care Center, 306 South Allen Street, on Tuesday, was pronounced dead at the scene. The Office of the Chief Medical Examiner in Chapel Hill will conduct a follow-up examination to determine the cause of death.

The intensive two-day search involved the Wake Forest Police Department, Wake County Emergency Management, Wake Forest Fire Department, Wake County Emergency Medical Services, and North Carolina Highway Patrol.

For more information, contact Wake Forest Police Chief Greg Harrington at (919) 554-6150.

###

For more information on the Town of Wake Forest, contact Bill Crabtree, Communications Specialist, at (919) 554-6196.